

ART

à la carte

January

Art à la Carte is a series of informative programs focusing on the arts. It is offered free of charge on Wednesdays at 12:15 pm at the Flint Institute of Arts. Visitors are encouraged to bring lunch; coffee, tea and cookies are provided.

January 8

Art 21: Berlin

60 min

Berlin has become a haven for artists from all over the world – a free zone where experimentation, individual expression, and international influences converge.

January 15

Art 21: Johannesburg

60 min

This program tells the story of four artists who use their work to empower marginalized communities, reexamine history, and pursue their visions for South Africa's future.

January 22

Ellsworth Kelly: Fragments

65 min

Ellsworth Kelly is widely regarded as one of the most important abstract painters, sculptors and printmakers working today. He insists on the connection between abstraction and nature from which he extrapolates forms and colors.

January 29

Jeff Koons: The Whitney Retrospective

54 min

Over the course of Jeff Koons's long career he's often been called the defining artist of our era. His stainless-steel Rabbit, Balloon Dog, and porcelain Michael Jackson and Bubbles have become icons of popular culture.
