Viridian

Ages 2.5-5

House Viridian stands as a shining beacon, inspiring young minds aged 2.5 to 5 to explore the vastness of imagination. Symbolizing the beginnings of earth and its clay, this house radiates with the vibrant hue of green, echoing the lush vitality of nature itself. Within its bounds, children embark on a journey of discovery, where each brushstroke and clay mold becomes a testament to their emerging artistic spirit. The alchemical symbol for clay adorns its banner, representative of molding the vase that creative skill may pour into. As the Institute reignites its youth membership program, House Viridian emerges anew, ready to inspire the hearts of its young initiates, elevating them as they become the artists of tomorrow.

Cerulean

Ages 6-9

House Cerulean unfurls as a mystical realm of boundless creativity for students aged 6 to 9. Glowing intensely blue, this house embodies the fluidity of water and vibrant paint, weaving a narrative of artistic expression that flows like a gentle stream or a great wave. Symbolizing the unification of water and pigment, its emblem bears a newly forged alchemical symbol, a testament to the harmonious fusion of creativity and imagination. Within its azure confines, children embark on a voyage of discovery, where one's creativity is revealed to be as deep and expansive as the ocean itself. House Cerulean stands ready to grant the space and encouragement needed for a student to dive into their creativity.

Carbon

Ages 10-12

House Carbon embodies creative wholeness, welcoming aspiring artists aged 10 to 12 to examine the finer details. Cloaked in the depth of black, this house epitomizes the essence of drawing, charcoal, and lead, channeling the raw energy of creation into every stroke and line. Representing the elemental force of carbon, its stylized symbol reflects the timeless allure of artistic expression. House Carbon stands as a palace of inspiration, where the blank page transforms into a realm of infinite possibilities, fueled by the magic that is artistry. Approaching art with intentionality and the mindset of discovery and innovation.

CADMIUM

Ages 13-18

House Cadmium blazes forth as a forge of boundless creative power, summoning artists aged 13 to 18 to achieve their vast potential. Emblazoned in the fiery hue of red, this house burns with the searing intensity of hot glass and the transformative power of fire, igniting the imaginations of its members with every molten droplet. Its emblem symbolizing the alchemy of glassmaking and the tool one must wield to handle its heat and mold its shape. Standing as a crucible of creativity, where the fusion of heat and vision yields masterpieces that glow with the brilliance of the sun. Casting light in every direction one looks - much like the artist themselves.
