

February

Art à la Carte is a series of informative programs focusing on the arts. It is offered free of charge on Wednesdays at 12:15 pm at the Flint Institute of Arts. Visitors are encouraged to bring lunch; coffee, tea and cookies are provided.

February 1

The Black Church - Part 1

54 min

The Black Church, hosted by Henry Louis Gates, Jr., chronicles the rich history of an institution at the heart of the African American experience. In this first of four installments, Gates explores the roots of African American religion from slavery until just before the Civil War.

February 8

The Black Church - Part 2

54 min

Henry Louis Gates, Jr. traces the history of the institution through the Civil War, Emancipation, Reconstruction, and the Jim Crow era.

February 15

The Black Church - Part 3

54 min

Henry Louis Gates, Jr. takes us on a journey through the Church's expansion to address social inequality during the Civil Rights movement.

February 22

The Black Church - Part 4

54 min

Henry Louis Gates, Jr. explores the history of the Church from the tragic assassination of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. through the Black Lives Matter movement of today.

Sponsored by the Merkley-Elderly Charitable Trust and CMU Public Broadcasting

