

June

Art à la Carte is a series of informative programs focusing on the arts. It is offered free of charge on Wednesdays at 12:15 pm at the Flint Institute of Arts. Visitors are encouraged to bring lunch; coffee, tea and cookies are provided.

June 7

Romano Cagnoni: War Photographer

52 min

Romano Cagnoni was an international, award-winning photographer, whose photographs have been featured on the cover and front page of nearly every significant news magazine and paper in Europe and the United States.

June 21

Relics of the Future

61 min

This program follows internationally renowned photographer Toni Hafkenscheid as he travels across North America, exploring and capturing iconic architectural structures once considered to be "Visions of the Future" from the 1960s.

June 14

Portraits and Dreams

53 min

This program revisits the photographs created by Kentucky school children in the 1970s. The film is about the students, their work as visionary photographers, the lives they have made since then, and the passage of time.

June 28

The Man Who Shot New York

61 min

This program explores the life and work of one of America's master photographers, Harold Feinstein, who photographed life in all its forms, when and where he wished.

Sponsored by the Merkley-Elderly Charitable Trust and CMU Public Broadcasting

