

ART

à la carte

July

Art à la Carte is a series of informative programs focusing on the arts. It is offered free of charge on Wednesdays at 12:15 pm at the Flint Institute of Arts. Visitors are encouraged to bring lunch; coffee, tea and cookies are provided.

July 6

19th Century Art

55 min

This program starts with Goya's "pinturas negras" and ends with the light-flooded paintings of the Impressionists.

July 13

Manet: Le Déjeuner sur l'Herbe

60 min

The full story of the painting that many believe is the beginning of modern art is revealed in this program.

July 20

Renoir: Dance at the Moulin de la Galette

60 min

This painting was once described as the most beautiful of all the artworks of the 19th century. Certainly, it seems the happiest. But beneath Renoir's joyful portrayal of working class Parisians at leisure is another, darker story.

July 27

Degas: Little Dancer Age 14

60 min

This program reveals the story of the real woman who Degas used as a model and includes revelations about how the statue as actually made.

Sponsored by Jim Chintyan

