

FLINT INSTITUTE OF ARTS

annual report
2009–2010

mission

To advance the understanding and appreciation of art for all through collections, exhibitions and educational programs.

about the Flint Institute of Arts

Incorporated in 1928, the FIA is a privately supported, non-profit organization. It is one of Michigan's most significant cultural and educational resources, serving people of all ages and interests.

The Institute is supported entirely through memberships, contributions from individuals and businesses, earned income from endowments, grants from trusts, government, and foundations.

The Institute's collections and temporary exhibitions are open daily (except national holidays). Donations are appreciated. Art classes for adults and children, lectures, films, tours and other special events are also offered as an integral part of the Institute's educational mission.

The Flint Institute of Arts is an Equal Opportunity Employer and provides programs and services without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex or handicap.

The Flint Institute of Arts is tax-exempt under Section 501 (c) (3).

from the president

It has been a particularly difficult year in the City of Flint and in the State of Michigan. Governmental budgets are in terrible shape and unemployment remained the highest in the nation. Despite all of this unrelenting news, the Flint Institute of Arts remained a source of pride and a place of culture and enjoyment.

The season began with a summer of outstanding attendance for the Chihuly glass show and the WOW of the newly unveiled Chihuly chandelier in the FIA foyer. Rock and Roll posters, over-sized sculptures by Judy Pfaff, the uncommon Gee's Bend Quilts, Dan White's emotional Kansas City Jazz photographs, the extensive Impressionist exhibition, and then the twin glass shows of Lino Tagliapietra and Tiffany lamps would be enough to call this year a success. And yet, they represent only a portion of the many events, activities, lectures and classes that drew thousands of visitors to the Flint Institute of Arts.

The economic slump dragged on and many funding sources reduced or eliminated contributions; yet a new Film Society formed which allowed the magnificent film series to continue and to draw increasingly larger crowds.

Of particular note, the FIA is most fortunate to receive extraordinary financial benefits from The Charles Stewart Mott Foundation in these particularly difficult economic times. Target Foundation has continued to provide the very popular Target Free Saturdays. The FIA has continued day-to-day operations as a fine cultural institution because of these and many other gifts.

The FIA received reaccreditation from the American Association of Museums (AAM). The AAM noted that the FIA continues to meet the high standards established by the Accreditation Program and the museum field. The AAM Board cited Areas of Commendable Practice for the FIA:

- Diversity

The museum demonstrates an exceptionally high level of institutional commitment to diversifying audiences, staff, and board and developing program partnerships and exhibit content that attracts, serves, and involves a broad and diverse community. We commend how you have integrated specific objectives and strategies regarding diversity into many sections of the strategic plan.

- Financial Stability

The Accreditation Commission commends how the museum has increased fundraising activity during an unusually challenging economic period through strong leadership and close work between the director and the board and two supporting groups. It is also remarkable how you have completed your expansion without incurring long-term debt; and increased operating costs of the expanded facility while maintaining free admission to the galleries.

As a board we have completed a long-range plan for the next five years. The FIA's vision for the next five years is to become "the preeminent center for lifelong enjoyment of the visual arts in Southeast Michigan." Our next challenge is in implementing this new vision.

One of the long term successes of the FIA is the extensive network of volunteers who support the FIA every year. This June, the Friends of Modern Art hosted the 43rd annual Flint Art Fair. This tremendous undertaking has become a summer season opening event. FOMA's continued support of the FIA, especially its sponsorship of the film series, is particularly gratifying.

The Founders Society continues to perform many "behind the scenes" duties which enhance the capability of the FIA to welcome patrons and future patrons. Van Goghing, Going, Gone Auction, and First Frost Art Fair have become favored, fun events and the proceeds have allowed Founders to provide financial support to many FIA programs. Founder's Art Sales & Rental Gallery promotes regional artists and makes art work available to the community at very reasonable prices.

The well-trained, dedicated Docent corps teaches so many visitors how to enjoy works of art and how to enjoy a visit to a museum. They create excellent memories for so many.

Our director, John Henry, has capably built an amazing, highly professional staff. Our department heads have been asked to work with many financial restrictions and yet they have still provided continually improving programs, events and care for our art institute. Of particular note, the new Visitor Services operation has been a successful blend of watchfulness and welcoming. This staff has very much enhanced the experience of visiting the FIA.

This year we said a final good-bye to several long term leaders and patrons of the FIA: Past President Ernie Hamady, his wife and long time board member Sue Hamady, and Past President Judy Piper. Each person was an excellent role model for community involvement and enthusiastic leadership.

Yet, new leadership is emerging. The highly successful opening of the glass exhibition called The Party showcased for a second year, the talents of a new generation.

I close with my thanks to all of the Board of Trustee members who have served this year with so much dedication. You are an active, hands-on Board and each of you has met your responsibilities graciously and joyfully. We have worked through a particularly difficult year, yet optimism for a better future abounds.

Elizabeth S. Murphy
President

from the director

This year has been a busy and exciting time at the Flint Institute of Arts with record attendance and enthusiastic response to the exceptional and varied opportunities we offered. FIA visitors viewed the distinctive Gees Bend (Alabama) quilts; authentic Rock & Roll posters of the 1960s and 70s; American Impressionism from the Brooklyn Museum; Jazz photographs by Dan White; Tiffany Lamps from the Neustadt Collection; and Contemporary glass exhibitions by world-renowned artists, Dale Chihuly (2009) and Lino Tagliapietra (2010). Unique educational programs were designed to enhance the visitor's understanding and appreciation for each exhibition. Throughout this past year, audiences have participated in workshops, artist demonstrations, tours, art classes, films, concerts, videos, public forums, family activities, lectures and educational programs that enrich the exhibitions and create memorable learning experiences for participants.

During fiscal year 2009–2010 the FIA served more than 150,000 visitors; more than half attending the museum, events and educational programs free of charge. FIA collections and exhibitions provided the community of Flint and surrounding counties with wide-ranging and culturally diverse presentations of works of art and educational programs designed to encourage creativity and personal growth for audiences of all ages and backgrounds. From introductory activities to challenging art experiences, the FIA is a center for lifelong learning dedicated to engaging and educating the community. All programs were developed in accordance with the FIA's mission to "advance the understanding and appreciation of art for all through collections, exhibitions, and educational programs."

Collaborations involving the entire community are at the heart of the FIA's success. To implement programming objectives, the FIA utilizes a community-based planning committee for each new exhibition. With the help of FIA Board members that have a personal interest in, or relationship with a specific theme, a planning committee is organized to include relevant community members, individuals from neighboring cultural and business organizations, and local college and university representatives. This initiative has led to the overwhelmingly successful coordination of special exhibition opening celebrations and community programming.

I would like to thank the volunteers whose selfless contribution of time and effort made it possible for the FIA to engage the community and reach this level of response. FIA Trustees, Docents, members of Friends of Modern Art and Founders Society are all responsible for and essential to the success of the FIA.

John B. Henry, III

exhibitions

The Flint Institute of Arts strives to provide excellent and innovative exhibitions that inspire, enlighten and educate our visitors. During the fiscal year 2009–2010, the FIA presented 14 changing exhibitions to enhance the visitor's understanding of the thematic, aesthetic, and historical content of a work of art. As one of the FIA's most visible programming activities, exhibitions promote greater audience visitation, which increases awareness of the museum's permanent collection and other FIA programs. Because the FIA is the only institution of its kind in Flint, Genesee County, and the region north of the Detroit metropolitan area, it is important that exhibition programming explores a wide range of artistic concepts and cultures. To this end, the Curatorial Department organizes exhibitions drawn from the FIA's extensive collection of more than 8,000 paintings, sculptures, works on paper and decorative arts, and borrows collections from artists, collectors, museums, and traveling exhibition organizers. In fiscal year 2009–2010, gallery attendance totaled 52,792.

Claudia DeMonte: Everyday Matters

9.5.09 – 11.8.09

This exhibition presented a selection of Claudia DeMonte's large prints and scratchboard drawings that examined the role of women in society. Her large digitally produced prints are silhouettes of iconic female figures from the history of art, including Venus of Willendorf, the Snake Goddess of Crete, Queen Nefertiti, as well as silhouettes of DeMonte herself, shown painting, jogging, and drying dishes. Each figure is filled with images of milagros, the small pewter Mexican charms of everyday objects that are invested with spiritual and magical power. DeMonte chose milagros such as tea kettles, handbags, perfume bottles, tennis rackets, artist palettes, and other items of personal significance that connect the everyday with the timeless.

Flashback: Posters from the Golden Age of Rock & Roll

9.26.09 – 11.8.09

Organized by the Flint Institute of Arts, in conjunction with Wolfgang's Vault, this exhibition featured many of the original silk-screened Rock & Roll posters of the 1960s and 1970s. Strong designs, including many art historical references, combined with psychedelic colors, manipulated lettering and powerful imagery produced works of art representative of both the graphic artist and the Rock & Roll artists being promoted. The posters represent a unique marriage of the psychedelic images the graphic artists were exploring and the new direction the music was taking. What ties these works together is the era of social revolution in which they were created. Original concert posters for Led Zeppelin, The Doors, Jefferson Airplane, Santana, The Grateful Dead and many others were on display.

Graphic Beauty: Contemporary Rock & Roll Posters

9.26.09 – 11.8.09

Created using the same screen printing process as their vintage predecessors, today's version of the Rock & Roll poster graphically captures the spirit of images popular in the 1960s and 1970s. Contemporary artists are reviving the intense, eye-popping art of the "gig poster." Modern Rock & Roll posters are original works of art representing a kaleidoscope of artistic styles, and offering a visual representation of the band and its music.

The Fine Art of Kansas City Jazz: Photographs of Dan White

11.21.09 – 1.3.10

Jazz musicians have a long-standing relationship with Kansas City. Musicians who came to the city in the 1920s found a booming nightclub scene in a town openly defying Prohibition laws, making these clubs a prosperous environment for musicians on the cutting edge of jazz.

Inspired to capture the faces and flavor of Kansas City jazz, Pulitzer-prize-winning photographer Dan White spent almost two decades photographing renowned Kansas City jazz musicians. The result of his work is The Fine Art of Kansas City Jazz, a series of 50 black-and-white portraits of Kansas City jazz musicians.

The portraits allow the viewer to engage with some of the personalities shaping the national and local jazz scene, including Jay McShann, Orville "Piggie" Minor, Eddie Saunders, Rusty Tucker, and Pearl Thurston. In addition to these stunning images, the exhibition featured glimpses into the artists' personal histories through excerpts of interviews with the musicians.

Judy Pfaff

11.21.09 – 1.3.10

Balancing intense planning with improvisational decision-making, Judy Pfaff creates exuberant, sprawling sculptures and installations that weave landscape, architecture, and color into a tense yet organic whole. Her installations extend from the wall into the viewer's space, giving these sculptures the illusion of weightlessness. A pioneer of installation art in the 1970s, Pfaff's work is a complex ordering of visual information composed of steel, fiberglass, and plaster as well as salvaged signage and natural elements such as tree roots.

Judy Pfaff was born in London in 1946 and later settled in Detroit, MI at the age of thirteen. She received her B.F.A. from Washington University and her M.F.A. from Yale University. Her innovative work has brought her wide acclaim from galleries and museums throughout the United States, Europe, and the Far East. Her work can be found in such prestigious collections as the Detroit Institute of Arts; The Museum of Modern Art, New York; the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York; and the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Ed Zelenak

11.14.09 – 1.10.10

Canadian artist Ed Zelenak's minimalist style depicts only the very basic features of an image—its shape, color, and surface treatment. His work, in this series, has been influenced by trees and the divining rod, both of which have forked “branches” extending from a central “trunk.” In addition to the drawings in this series, Zelenak has created metal relief sculptures using similar geometric abstract shapes, mounted onto clear acrylic panels. His work is included in several important collections throughout Canada and the United States.

Matthew Wead

Matthew Wead

1.16.10 – 4.18.10

Matthew Wead's Shooting Targets capture the feeling one gets when faced with one's own mortality. Each print is based on real individuals that had been killed by police officers and who were later exonerated. The woodcuts examine the perspective of the civilian during confrontation with the police, which often escalates due to their fear of each other. The artist used himself as the model, recalling the fear from his own confrontation with police, in an attempt to capture the emotion of what the victim looked like at the exact moment the gun was fired.

Childe Hassam: American Impressionist Prints from the FIA's Collection

1.16.10 – 3.7.10

Childe Hassam began to paint in the Impressionist style after he visited Paris between 1887 and 1889. In his paintings, he portrayed life in urban America, primarily New York City, and the country landscapes of New England. In 1915, at the age of 56, Hassam began making etchings of subjects similar to his paintings. Over the course of his career, Hassam produced 375 etchings. He also created a group of lithographs between 1916 and 1918, first creating the drawings on location and then transferring them to stones or metal plates. Overall, his graphic works share the same characteristics with his paintings, several of which are considered to be masterpieces of Impressionist printmaking.

The prints by Hassam included in this exhibition were from the Flint Institute of Arts' permanent collection, and were donated by Mrs. Hassam in 1940 when she divided most of the prints left in Childe Hassam's estate to select art museums in the United States.

Mary Lee Bendolph: Gee's Bend Quilts, & Beyond

1.23.10 – 4.18.10

Founded in the early 1800s by the Gee family as a cotton plantation, Gee's Bend, Alabama, is isolated from much of the nearby countryside since it is surrounded on three sides by the Alabama River. After the Civil War, the formerly enslaved people of Gee's Bend remained on the land as tenant farmers. Generations of Gee's Bend residents had minimal interaction with absentee landlords and outlying communities. Therefore, the citizens of Gee's Bend developed a distinctive local culture—with quilting taking a vital place in their lives. The strikingly innovative, abstract quilts were often the only colorful or decorative furnishing in otherwise plain living spaces.

Mary Lee Bendolph, Gee's Bend Quilts, and Beyond highlighted one of Gee's Bend's most original artists, Mary Lee Bendolph, and also explored the work of three of Bendolph's close relatives, her mother, Aolar Mosely, her daughter, Essie B. Pettway, and her daughter-in-law, Louisiana P. Bendolph.

In addition to the quilts included in the exhibition, were works by two contemporary Alabama-based artists who have been inspired by the quilts of Gee's Bend, Thorton Dial and Lonnie Holley. The self-taught Dial and Holley explore the African American experience through their assemblage sculptures, which are created from commonplace found objects and found materials, such as furniture, cloth, carpet, and paint.

Landscapes from the Age of Impressionism: Paintings from the Brooklyn Museum

2.6.10 – 4.18.10

This exhibition included many of the finest examples of mid-nineteenth through early twentieth-century French and American landscapes from the collection of the Brooklyn Museum of Art. The 38 paintings presented offer a broad survey of landscape painting as practiced by such leading French artists as Gustave Courbet and Claude Monet and their most significant American followers including Frederick Childe Hassam and John Singer Sargent.

American painters, beginning in the 19th century, followed in the footsteps of the French archetypes seeking to improve their skills and find inspiration in Paris and its environs, attending French art academies and frequenting the painting locations made famous by their Barbizon and Impressionist predecessors. Some of the Americans had direct contact with leading French landscape painters, sharing landscape sites or seeking informal guidance from admired mentors. The majority of the American paintings on display depicted American locales: beaches, factories, tenements, and notable subjects such as Central Park in works distinguished by brilliant colors and lively, broken brushwork by such American luminaries as William Glackens, Julian Alden Weir, and Willard Leroy Metcalf.

Impressionist & Post-Impressionist Paintings from the FIA's Permanent Collection

2.6.10 – 4.18.10

Together, the exhibition Landscapes from the Age of Impressionism: Paintings from the Brooklyn Museum of Art and the FIA's permanent collection created a complete story of the development of Impressionism and the styles that evolved out of Impressionism, both in Europe and the United States. The FIA's collection included European and American Impressionist works by Alfred Sisley, Charles Daubigny, Jean Baptiste Camille Corot, John Singer Sargent, Mary Cassatt, Pierre Renoir, Eugène-Louis Boudin, Gustave Courbet and Childe Hassam. Also included were Post-Impressionist works painted in styles that developed out of Impressionism including paintings by Lucien Pissarro, Pierre Bonnard, Alexej Jawlensky, Édouard Vuillard, Maurice Denis, Albert Marquet and Andre Segonzac.

Lino Tagliapietra in Retrospect: A Modern Renaissance in Italian Glass

5.23.10 – 8.15.10

Lino Tagliapietra is widely revered as the maestro of glassblowing, an inspiring teacher and the elder statesman linking the glass centers of Venice, Italy and the Pacific Northwest.

Tagliapietra's artistic imagery and vision continue to influence Studio Glass artists around the world. Among the well-known artists that he has had a great influence on is Dale Chihuly. In 1979, Tagliapietra came to Pilchuck Glass School, the school that Chihuly began. Tagliapietra unhesitatingly shared his expertise with Dale Chihuly as well as other artists worldwide, universally elevating the art and craft of glassmaking and changing the course of contemporary glass.

This exhibition was the first comprehensive retrospective of Tagliapietra's art and career. It represented the artist's pivotal and renowned series of artistic work, his designs made for industry as well as private objects that have never been exhibited. It included 165 objects acquired from the artist's own collection and collections around the world.

Selections in the exhibition ranged from large works and major installations, to smaller works such as goblets and small vessels. Also included in the exhibition were several collaborations with other artists including Dan Dailey and Marina Angelin.

Tiffany Lamps: Articles of Utility, Objects of Art

5.23.10 – 8.15.10

Tiffany Lamps: Articles of Utility, Objects of Art celebrates Louis Comfort Tiffany's revolutionary contributions to modern decorative lighting. Organized by the Neustadt Collection of Tiffany Glass in New York City, this exhibition presented the first in-depth look at the Tiffany Studios' deliberate efforts to produce lamps that balance artistry with utility and profitability. Over 40 stunning objects in an array of colors, sizes and decorative styles were featured in five sections exploring the themes of fabrication, design inspiration, and changing lighting technologies. The show also included tools, materials and period photographs to enhance the viewer's appreciation of the objects by demonstrating how they were made and what influenced the designs.

Tiffany's lamps are an innovative and successful combination of usefulness and beauty. As articles of utility, reading lamps, floor lamps, and hanging shades come in a wide variety of sizes and shapes to regulate and direct light. As objects of art, the lamps, with their interplay of colored glass and richly sculpted bronze, bring beauty into the home, whether understated minimal accents of color, or showy, elaborate design statements. This exhibition went beyond the general appreciation of the beauty of Tiffany lamps by examining the artistry and social context of these iconic objects. By creating lamps as objects of both utility and art, Louis Comfort Tiffany realized his goal of making beautiful objects accessible to the public.

Ukiyo-e: Impressions of the Floating World

5.15.10 – 7.25.10

Japanese woodblock prints frequently depict beautiful women, Kabuki actors, and landscapes peopled with characters from everyday life. Since the mid to late 19th century, printmakers have looked to Japanese prints for their unique use of composition, color, and perspective.

Among the earliest gifts to the FIA's collection, the Japanese prints are rarely on view because of the damage that can occur when the delicate colors are exposed to light. This exhibition illustrated the important and influential genre of the most skilled woodblock printers. Included were works by masters such as Hiroshige, Kunisada and Kuniyoshi.

The Flint Institute of Arts' permanent collection is a resource for creating exhibitions and developing educational programs for students and scholars, as well as a diverse public.

The growth of the collection is supported by gifts from civic-minded individuals who donate funds and works of art to the permanent collection. In addition, the Curatorial Department and the Collections Committee work together to identify strategies and seek new funds for the acquisition of artworks that meet museum objectives and the expectations of an ever inquisitive and knowledgeable public. The staff conducts work essential to the care and management of the collection, including research, documentation, preservation, presentation and interpretation.

The Flint Institute of Arts believes an effective way to enhance its reputation as an important cultural institution is to lend works of art from the permanent collection to other museums. Lending art promotes collegial relationships between museums, and provides national and international audiences exposure to works of art from the FIA's outstanding permanent collection. In addition, the FIA also borrows works from other museums and galleries to supplement the permanent collection and exhibitions.

films & videos

The FIA Film Program is intended to offer motion pictures that appeal to a broad and diverse audience in the local community. The program is comprised of a weekly schedule of film series and festivals in the FIA Theater. The main series, sponsored by the Friends of Modern Art and held on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, accounted for 43 titles over 37 weeks between Labor Day and Memorial Day in 2009–2010. The new College Town Movie Series was held on 25 Thursday nights between September and April. A museum record of 8,393 patrons attended films at FIA in 2009–2010. In addition, an FIA Film Society was created to enable members to take a stronger interest in the program.

The Fleckenstein Video Gallery is a distinctive museum space dedicated to the exhibition of outstanding works by video artists. The gallery operates during regular museum hours, and features a different artist each month.

film society

The 2009–10 season marked the debut of the FIA Film Society, an organization intended to increase interest in, and funding for, the film program.

By season’s end, the Society included 68 members. Donors were granted tickets to FOMA films, listings in the FIA Members Magazine and website, and other benefits.

art school

The FIA Art School is dedicated to the enrichment of the community through individual academic exposure to the visual arts. Highly qualified faculty offer instruction in drawing, painting, photography, cartoon/character design, fibers, glass mosaic, ceramics, and early childhood art courses. Since 1928, the Art School has operated continuously, helping students develop a wide range of artistic goals and skill levels. Programs are designed to support the mission of the FIA with dynamic curricula that engages students and the community through creative processes, studio experiences, and public art exhibitions.

enrollment

Art School enrollment for fiscal year 2009–2010 was 1645. Annual enrollment averaged an increase of 7%.

gallery

Bishop Gallery exhibition themes have been changed from medium-based exhibitions to non-material specific concepts. The gallery presented ten exhibitions with subject matter ranging from Art Camp to Abstraction and The Figure.

new programs

Several new initiatives in the Art School were introduced during this fiscal year. The Art School launched the collaborative Healing Through Art therapy program with McLaren Regional Medical Center. The Art School is a 10% financial partner with McLaren providing 90% financial responsibility. The Great Lakes Cancer Institute hired art therapist, Gail Singer, utilizing funds raised last fiscal year.

Fourteen high school sophomores have completed their third session and eight high school freshmen completed their first session of the Pre-College Portfolio Development Program. The program's mission is to increase the artistic skills and professional exposure of talented high school art students, as well as to transition teens from high school art programs into college art programs. The second of three installments of $10,000 from the James A. Welch Foundation enabled students and faculty to produce outstanding results. Gifts from the Stella and Frederick S. Loeb Charitable Trust administered by Citizens Bank Wealth Management, N.A and an anonymous donor have contributed to the program.

In response to the growing trend of museums nationwide, the Art School introduced The Art of Yoga to the FIA students with resounding enthusiasm.

The Art School has increased marketing with editorial coverage on local radio. Art School programs have been featured three times on the program "African American Inspiration," on Flint's 1470 AM station.

scholarship partners

Art School Administration continued to serve community collaborators through its Partner Scholarship Program; Road to Freedom, Inc.; Ebenezer Youth Ministries, Beecher Scholarship Incentive Program, Center Academy, and the Hispanic Community Technology Center.

education

The Flint Institute of Arts is committed to promoting understanding and enjoyment of the visual arts through high quality art education programs. We believe art is a vital component of life and that learning is a lifelong process. Our educational programming provides dynamic and enriching experiences for people of all ages with all levels of familiarity with art.

Our programs invite people to gain greater understanding and enjoyment of the FIA's outstanding permanent collection and special exhibitions. They are designed to present learning opportunities that are rich in content and stimulate imagination, thought, and creativity.

Education programs served a total of 31,708 during FY2010.

k-12 programs

During FY2010, gallery and studio programs comprised 57% of educational programming and served 17,939 K-12 students. Thirty-two percent participated in gallery lessons, 28% in studio activities, 39% in outreach programs, and 1% in self-guided visits. Seventy-seven percent of students attended public schools, 9% private schools, and 14% charter schools, with 88% of the schools located in Genesee County. The remaining 12% of schools served were from Oakland (5%), Wayne (3%), Lapeer (1.5%), St. Clair (0.75%), Tuscola (0.5%), Ingham (0.25%), Livingston (0.25%), Midland (0.25%), Shiawassee (0.25%), and Washtenaw (0.25%) Counties.

Educator Workshop

public programs

Public programs in FY2010, such as the Bray Lectures, served 13,769 and comprised 43% of educational programming. This is a significant increase over FY2009. The greatest gains were in Adult, Art à la Carte, and Family Programs, which increased 5%, 21%, and 115%, respectively. Marketing and the desirability of free family programs in difficult economic times are responsible for these gains.

grant

In FY2009, the FIA presented an exhibition of photographs from the Chiapas Photography Project and hosted three members of the project, who presented a series of educator and school workshops. In FY2010, the FIA received a three-year grant from The Ford Foundation for support for the Chiapas Photography Project. The grant will include a cultural exchange project with a Maya photographer from Chiapas, Mexico, visiting Flint and a photographer from the Flint region visiting Chiapas.

development

The Development Department is responsible for all areas of funding for the FIA. This includes support through membership, grants, sponsorships, planned giving, annual appeal and the Endowment Campaign.

In addition, the Department manages marketing, public relations, promotion, facilities use, audience development, collaborative initiatives and special events. The Department also organizes a broad and diverse volunteer base.

The FIA has five primary sources of support: endowment income, grants, earned income, contributions, and membership.

endowment income

The endowment funds of the FIA produce an annual yield, both restricted and unrestricted. These funds support general operating, exhibitions, programs, art acquisition, art conservation, scholarships, lectures and membership initiatives. As of June 30, 2010 the endowment funds totaled $21,840,000 contributing 24% the annual income. Unrestricted donations in the form of planned gifts and bequests are traditionally allocated to endowment. Please see pages 43–44 for this fiscal year's listing.

grants

The FIA receives grant awards from foundations, community organizations, businesses, corporations and the state and federal governments. The FIA receives support from two auxiliary groups, the Founders Society and Friends of Modern Art. Revenue from grants represents 40% of the budget.

earned income

Income generated from sales, tuition, facility rentals, special events, and admissions provided 13% of the FIA's general operating budget.

contributions

Monetary donations, annual appeal gifts, memorials, donations commemorating anniversaries and birthdays, specific programs or events represents funds in this category which contribute 17% of the Institute's annual income. Please see pages 45–48 for this fiscal year's contributions listing.

membership

Membership dues represent 6% of the annual income. The FIA has many ways to support the museum through membership:

- Membership begins at the Youth level of $20 annually, which provides activities exclusively for ages 2.5–12.
- There are several higher levels of membership to choose from for an individual or a corporation. Basic benefits are enjoyed by all, and higher level donors receive extended benefits, such as reciprocal membership privileges to over 350 museums nationwide at the Sustainer level ($100) and above.
- The highest levels of membership ($1,000+) comprise the Rubens Society whose contributions generate more than $100,000 to the budget. Society members are invited to three exclusive events throughout the year.
- The FIA's Art School is a strong promoter of membership as members receive a discount on art classes. 32% of FY2010 members joined through the Art School, and an additional 5% renewed.
- The Print Society was established in 2007. This Society is limited to 100 members who, after first becoming a member of the FIA at the Contributor level ($50) or above, are able to purchase a pre-selected print by a noteworthy artist. The Society is dedicated to the connoisseurship of original prints, the purchase of prints to augment the FIA's collection, and the pursuit of personal collecting.
- Also established in 2007, the FIA College Town initiative provides free memberships to students at Kettering University, University of Michigan-Flint, Mott Community College, and Baker College. Students receive many of the basic benefits, but receive no mailings. Instead they receive E-Newsletters updating them on general FIA activities and events and those designed specifically for College Town members. In 2009, Thursday evening free College Town Films was introduced subsidized by the four institutions.

Please see pages 49–58 for this fiscal year's membership listing.

supporting groups

Founders Society

Letter from the President,
Susan Steiner Bolhouse

Each year, support groups donate thousands of dollars and volunteer hours to the Institute in support of exhibitions, art acquisitions, and programs. The Flint Institute of Arts is deeply grateful to the members of the Friends of Modern Art and the Founders Society for their generous support.

The Founders Society worked against the national economic tide to honor its financial commitment to the Flint Institute of Arts and to support the publication of its Members Magazine, the Henry Library, and the most recent, successful, Impressionist exhibition.

This was the Founders' third year to undertake two signature fundraising efforts: the First Frost Art Fair in the fall, and the Van Goghing, Going, Gone live auction in the spring. First Frost again had its signature Festival of Trees, and a very popular on-site glassblower; it was well attended by many returning visitors, and with many complimentary community comments.

Despite the time and effort put into the live auction, it did not yield the anticipated revenue of past years. Consideration is being given to making this a semi-annual event. A positive auction initiative/partnership with a local consignment business has generated additional monthly sales on Founders' behalf. Art Sales & Rental has seen new growth, interest in the artists, and the quality and variety of items available.

Per Founders' tradition, a holiday luncheon was hosted for all FIA staff members to recognize them for the many ways they consistently and generously help the Founders Society in its fundraising efforts. The hospitality committee continues to host receptions for exhibition openings; this year some 450+ FIA patrons were served at three functions.

Travel and Tours had scheduled a trip to China for the fall of 2010, but at the concern of the tour operator for the current political climate, it has been cancelled. In lieu of China, a trip to Great Britain is being considered.

The members of the Founders Society are to be commended for their ongoing commitment and dedication to the Flint Institute of Arts! This past year, collectively this group of volunteers has recorded over 2,700 hours of service to the FIA and the greater Flint community, which has allowed visitors to become more familiar with this wonderful cultural institution in their community.

Friends of Modern Art

Letter from the President, Christopher Kelly, Jr.

This year was yet another banner year for Friends of Modern Art. Our efforts were well supported by our members, the Flint Institute of Arts, and the local community, and allowed us to continue our goal of supporting the FIA. In June, we presented the 43rd Annual Flint Art Fair. Nearly 12,000 people enjoyed a beautiful weekend of art, food, and music on the grounds of the FIA. This year, we featured over 150 artists from across the country displaying work in a variety of media: sculpture, paintings, jewelry, metalwork, ceramics, and much more. Visitors enjoyed two full days of music from blues to rock and folk to jazz. This included our new inflatables section for the kids that was very much appreciated by parents and kids alike. Again this year, the entire event was well-received by the local community, the media, and the artists.

FOMA was proud to continue, and also expand, our FOMA Film Series. This is a wonderful opportunity to showcase great films from around the world that are simply not found in the local movie theaters. With our new expanded season, these can now be enjoyed almost throughout the year.

FOMA was also a proud sponsor of Lino Tagliapietra in Retrospect: A Modern Renaissance in Italian Glass. We were also proud to once again sponsor a FOMA corporate membership to the FIA's Rubens Society.

Lastly, we would like to thank all of the volunteers who make all of our efforts possible. Their hard and ongoing work is greatly appreciated. We look forward to continuing our great success over the next year.

Flintstock

September 26, 2009

Flintstock was held on the FIA's lawn from noon until 10:00p. This all day event of Art, Love and Rock & Roll was held in conjunction with the public opening of two exhibitions Flashback: Posters from the Golden Age of Rock & Roll and Graphic Beauty: Contemporary Rock & Roll Posters. Admission for the event was $5.00 per person. Guests were treated to live performances from seven bands: Question Mark & the Mysterians, Larry McCrey, Frijid Pink, Sprout, Kinetic Stereokids, South Bay Bessie and Morseville Bridge. The event also included a variety of food and refreshments, a beer tent, handmade wares and authentic Rock & Roll memorabilia for sale.

Event Sponsors: WNEM5, Bud Light Golden Wheat, The Original Big John Steak & Onion, The Flint Journal, Landaal Packaging Systems, Drs. Bobby and Nita Mukkamala, Arby's of Grand Blanc, US103.1FM, and Bill Carr Signs.

Thompson Lecture

October 6, 2009

The 19th Annual Thompson Lecture members-only event with lecturer Jonathan Pevsner, Associate Professor at the Kennedy Krieger Institute, gave an insightful look into The Mind of Leonardo da Vinci.

Leonardo da Vinci (1452–1519) was one of the most fascinating individuals in history. He was the creator of what are arguably the world's two most famous paintings: The Last Supper and the Mona Lisa. He was also a brilliant engineer and scientist. As an engineer, he invented hundreds of devices (from ball bearings to a steam cannon), and as a scientist he made dozens of original discoveries in fields as diverse as chemistry, botany, and geology. Leonardo pursued detailed investigations into brain anatomy and physiology with the goal of providing mechanistic explanations of how the brain interprets sensory input and how the brain (and soul) processes and interprets that information.

Dr. Pevsner explored Leonardo's remarkable life and helped us understand the nature of his creativity and his integrative approach to the arts and sciences.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack W. Thompson established the Thompson Lecture in 1991 to enable the FIA to present a distinguished speaker to the arts or humanities each year. The Thompson lecture series is one of the Institute's few members-only events and was established, in part, to attract new members to the Flint Institute of Arts.

Beer Tasting: Art on Tap

October 24, 2009

The second annual Art on Tap Beer Tasting Event was held on the FIA's front lawn from 4:00p to 9:00p. In partnership with John P. Facilities Rental

The FIA hosted many groups and organizations this past fiscal year including the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, Flint Northwestern, FAM Tours, Citizens Bank, NBC25, Pierians, Landaal Packaging Systems, Genesys Health System, University of Michigan-Flint, Mott Community College, Flint Jewish Federation, CAA Connect, National Kitchen & Bath Association, Piper Realty, McLaren Regional Medical Center, Kettering University, Genesee County Road Commission, Jack & Jill, Hurley Medical Center, The Flint Journal, Dort Federal Credit Union, BEST Project, Daughters of the American Revolution, Genesee Christian High School, Women 2 Women Magazine, Edward Jones Financial, Flint Southwestern High School, Flint Community Schools, University of Michigan-Ann Arbor, and many private family functions and receptions (i.e. film screenings, bat mitzvah, anniversary, prom, retirement party, holiday parties, and a wedding reception).

4,041 visitors attended these events with $29,925 raised for the FIA through rental income.

Flint Art Fair

endowment campaign

In the spring of 2006, the FIA embarked on a $10 million Endowment Campaign to raise funds to generate additional annual operating income for the expanded facility. To date, 254 donors have contributed $7,473,159 towards the goal.

The Endowment Campaign includes monies raised through the sponsorship of theater seats, grant awards, direct and planned gifts (Renaissance Society) as well as naming opportunities.

The Renaissance Society consists of individuals that have notified the FIA of a planned contribution through their estate. This program enables the FIA to acknowledge and work with Society members. Planned Giving has a positive impact on the preservation and growth of the FIA contributing $1.5 million to the current funds raised in the Endowment Campaign.

Board of Directors
Flint Institute of Arts
Flint, Michigan

independent auditor's report

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Flint Institute of Arts, a Michigan non-profit corporation, as of June 30, 2010 and the related statements of activity, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Institute's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The prior year summarized comparative information has been derived from the organization's 2009 financial statements and, in our report dated December 16, 2009 we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Flint Institute of Arts, as of June 30, 2010, and the changes in net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental financial information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements, and in our opinion, it is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

The Collection Maintenance and Storage project is supported in part by Save America's Treasures through a partnership between the National Endowment for the Arts and the National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

Save America's Treasures is a public-private partnership between the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the National Park Service dedicated to preserving our nation's irreplaceable historic and cultural treasures for future generations.

Operating support for the Flint Institute of Arts is provided in part by the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation.

FIA exhibitions and programs are made possible in part with the support of the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
